

Third International Conference on Documentary Linguistics – Asian Perspectives (DLAP-3)

(23 – 24 July 2018)

CALL FOR PAPERS

Expanding on the success of DLAP-1 and DLAP-2 hosted at The University of Hong Kong in 2016 and 2017, we are happy to announce the 3rd International Conference on Documentary Linguistics – Asian Perspectives, to be held at Research Institute for Languages and Cultures of Asia (RILCA), Mahidol University, Thailand from the 23rd – 24th July 2018.

The theme of DLAP-3 will be ‘Working with Communities: Toward reclamation of linguistic and cultural heritage’. There will be a post-conference field trip to the Black Tai community in Petchaburi province.

The aim of the conference is to consider the benefits, methodologies, and challenges of working with communities in attempts to revitalize linguistic and cultural heritage. In order to build effective and sustainable “Linguistic and Cultural Heritage Documentation and Revitalization” movements, collaboration with communities is important, however, so far there has been limited accumulation of knowledge and tools. We therefore propose a forum for exchanging our experiences and thoughts about any aspect of working with communities.

We also welcome contributions regarding the general topic of “Linguistic and Cultural Heritage Documentation and Revitalization”, particularly in Asian contexts.

For a PRESENTATION at the DLAP-3 Conference

Please submit an abstract of maximum 300 words online at:
