

A Research on Varieties of Malayic Languages: The 5th meeting The Second International Workshop on Malay Varieties

Date/Time

13 October, 2018 (Sat.), 13:00–18:10

14 October, 2018 (Sun.), 10:00–17:30

Venue

Room 304, 3F, ILCAA, TUFS

Program

October 13 (SAT)

TIME		SPEAKER	TITLE
12:00–13:00	Registration
13:00–13:10	Opening Talk
13:10–13:50	Talk 1	Yanti and Asako Shiohara	Standard Indonesian and Colloquial Indonesian: How do they differ?
13:50–14:30	Talk 2	Thomas J. Connors	Javanese Influenced Indonesian
14:30–14:40	Break
14:40–15:20	Talk3	Yoshimi Miyake	A preliminary study on mixing and switching of Indonesian and Javanese
15:20–16:00	Talk4	Michael C. Ewing	Features of Indonesian as spoken in Bandung
16:00–16:40	Talk5	Naonori Nagaya	Flores Malay: A preliminary description
16:40–16:50	Break
16:50–17:30	Talk 6	Atsuko Utsumi	Stress in Manado Malay and Lampung Malay
17:30–18:10	Talk 7	Timothy Charles Brickell	Manado Malay: features, contact, and contrasts
18:30–20:30	Reception

October 14 (SUN)

10:00–10:40	Talk 8	Nazarudin	The Use of Melayu Tenggara Jauh in the Social Media Among the Oirata Community on Facebook Group Putra Putri Oirata
10:40–11:20	Talk 9	June Jacob and Charles E. Grimes	Aspect and Directionality in Kupang Malay Serial Verb Constructions
11:20–11:30	Break
11:30–12:10	Talk 10	Sri Budi Lestari	Some features of colloquial Indonesian seen on native Javanese and Lampungnese speakers in Lampung
12:10–12:50	Talk 11	Kazuya Inagaki	Word Prominence in Pontianak Malay
12:50–14:00	Lunch
14:00–14:40	Talk 12	Antonia Soriente	Towards a characterization of the language spoken in Kalimantan Utara: Middle Indonesian, Common Indonesian or Regional Indonesian? Notes on morphosyntax
14:40–15:20	Talk 13	Asako Shiohara	Agent coding in narratives in some Malay varieties
15:20–16:00	Talk 14	Bradley McDonnell	Focus restrictions on grammatical relations in Besemah
16:00–16:20	Break
16:20–17:20	Discussion
17:20–17:30	Closing Talk		