

Program

Language documentation and revitalization workshop: Interdisciplinary approach

29 June - 5 July 2019

Goals:

- 1) Build a community-based plan for creating a heritage map of the community
- 2) Build a community-based strategy for managing traditional cultural and linguistic knowledge

Day 1 (June 29)

8:00-12:00 Identify local identity

- Group sessions to identify bases of local pride and identity

13:00-17:00 Set shared ultimate goal

- Share outcome of the discussion to set a shared ultimate goal of actions

Day 2 (June 30)

8:00-12:00 Language and cultural heritage: Our cultural capital

- What is language and cultural heritage? -- Reflection on heritage and cultural capital in our community life

13:00-17:00 Local history

- What have we experienced as a community; Where we have come from; Where we stand in the history of the community; What are the origins of what we have now

Day 3 (July 1)

8:00-12:00 SWOT analysis

- What are our strong assets; What are our vulnerabilities; Where do we see opportunities for our growth and prosperity; What are concerns and potential threats to the future of the community

13:00-17:00 Locate heritage and wise people

- Reflect on the treasures and sources of knowledge in our community

Day 4 (July 3)

8:00-12:00 Community research

- Go out and interview wise people

13:00-17:00 Shared info and presentation

- Share information collected from the wise people

Day 5 (July 4)

8:00-12:00 localized language documentation

- Ways of making records of language heritage in connection to the cultural heritage

13:00-17:00 customized language revitalization

- Ways of keeping the heritage language alive in the community life especially in connection to the cultural heritage

Day 6 (July 5)

8:00-12:00 community project planning: heritage map

- Making a plan to create a map of cultural heritage in the community

13:00-17:00 community project planning: knowledge management plan

- Making a strategy and plan to collect and utilize artifacts and cultural knowledge

