

ReNeLDA Workshop “Microvariation in South African Languages”

Aims

- Training workshop on language documentation software: Praat and FLEx
- Working sessions on the investigation of microvariation in southern African languages
- Constructing a comparable database based on 142 parameters

Date

From February 28th to March 13th, 2020

Venue

MER Mathivha Centre for African Languages, Arts and Culture

Schedule (tentative)

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Week 1	March 2	March 3	March 4	March 5	March 6
Morning (9:00-12:00)	Introduction FLEx	#1-25	#26-35	#36-48	#49-86
Afternoon (13:30-15:00)	Office hours	Office hours	Office hours	Office hours	Office hours
Week 2	March 9	March 10	March 11	March 12	March 13
Morning (9:00-12:00)	#87-104	#105-124	#125-142	summary	summary
Afternoon (13:30-15:00)	Office hours	Office hours	Office hours	Office hours	Office hours

- Numbers after the sharp sign (#) refer to parameters to be investigated.
- Participants will be required to be present during the morning sessions.
- The workshop team members will be available in the afternoon for additional office hours.

Workshop organizing team

Daisuke Shinagawa: Coordinator of ReNeLDA (ILCAA, TUFS)

Seunghun Lee (International Christian University and University of Venda)

Yuko Abe (Tokyo Woman’s Christian University)

Sponsored by

JSPS's Core-to-Core Program: B. Asia-Africa Science Platforms (2018-2020)

